

Just Us Kids Pediatrics

Treatment of Minors

All patients below the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian while being treated in the office.

If not, a parent or legal guardian the adult accompanying must be documented properly with a signed consent to treat form on file.

Patients who are between 16-18 years old may be examined in the exam room alone but must have a parent or legal guardian present in the office building.